3.1 For purposes of this Section, "Confidential Information" shall include all business or technical information, including proprietary information about costs, Customers, pricing, profits, markets, sales, lists of Customers, employees, potential Customers, potential employees, methods of doing business, plans for future development, information regarding matters of a technical nature, such as scientific, trade and engineering secrets, all "know-how", formulas, designs, secret processes, machines, inventions, computer programs (including documentation of such programs) and research projects, information obtained by examination of any product, design, production equipment or drawings thereof and any other information of a similar nature that is marked "Confidential" or that the Temporary Worker knows or has reason to know is the confidential or proprietary information of Customer or

MSP, as the case may be. Notwithstanding the forgoing, Confidential Information shall not include any information that:

- 3.1.1 is hereafter lawfully disclosed to the Temporary Worker under conditions which do not restrict further disclosure or by a third party which did not acquire the Confidential Information under an obligation of confidentiality to Customer or MSP, as the case may be;

- 3.2.1 Maintain in strict confidence all Confidential Information of Customer or MSP, as the case may be;
- 3.2.2 Use or reproduce the Confidential Information solely as necessary for purposes of providing services as an independent contractor to Customer;

- 3.2.4 Immediately notify MSP in writing, who will in turn notify Customer, of any known unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information, providing a detailed description of the circumstances of the disclosure and the parties involved.
- 3.2.5 Injunctive Relief. Temporary Worker acknowledges that it is likely to be difficult to value the damages sustained by MSP or Customer, as the case may be, due to any breach of Section 3 herein and that such damages are likely to be substantial or irreparable and the damaged party's remedy at law would be inadequate. Therefore, in the event of a breach of Section 3 herein, in addition to any other relief, MSP or Customer, as the case may be, shall be entitled to temporary and permanent injunctive relief without the necessity of proving actual damages.

4. Work Product. Temporary Worker acknowledges and agrees that during and incident to Temporary Worker's work for Customer, Temporary Worker may create inventions, discoveries, improvements, computer or other apparatus programs, and related documentation and other works of authorship ("Work Product"), whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or subject to other forms of legal protection. Temporary Worker agrees to assign to Customer all of Temporary Worker's right, title and interest (including rights in copyright) in and to all Work Product Temporary Worker makes, creates or develops, either solely or jointly with others, during Temporary Worker's assignment to Customer. If for any reason, any such work shall not be deemed a work made for hire or ownership of such copyrights would not vest in Customer, then Temporary Worker shall transfer all right, title and interest in such work, including all copyrights therein to Customer. In those jurisdictions that deem any work performed on a "Work Made for Hire" basis as giving rise to an employee/employer relationship, the parties specifically agree that this provision shall not apply in such jurisdiction and that Temporary Worker shall continue to be deemed an independent contractor of Customer.
7. Term. This Agreement shall be effective as of the date first written above, and shall remain in effect notwithstanding Temporary Worker's termination of employment with Employer or termination of Temporary Worker's assignment to Customer.
8. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, then such invalid or enforceable provisions shall be severed, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect to the fullest extent permitted by law.
9. Waiver. This Agreement may be amended, or its requirements waived, only by a writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of the waiver or amendment is sought.
10. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This agreement shall be governed by the law of the State of South Carolina. Any litigation under this Agreement shall be filed and pursued in a court of proper venue in the State of South Carolina. All parties expressly consent to the jurisdiction of such courts.

12. No Inducements. Temporary Worker shall not provide or offer any gifts, payments, or other inducements to any officer, employee or agent of MSP or Customer for any purpose.
13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement and understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and this Agreement supersedes all prior and contemporaneous negotiations, discussions and understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.
IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Temporary Worker Agreement as of the date first written above.
